The meeting was called to order at 9:00 a.m. with a welcome by Ms. Schlageter. Roundtable introductions ensued and brief networking exercise was conducted. Consensus was reached to approve the February meeting minutes.

The faith toolkits are being distributed through faith liaison, Michael Shannon and the parent toolkits are now available. Appreciation was extended to all partners for their part in distributing DeltonaForYou promotional items and giveaways at community events. The toolkits will continue to be distributed to Deltona parents until there are not any more available and interested individuals should contact Ms. Schlageter.

Ms. Schlageter opened the floor for discussion regarding sustaining the Project and efforts underway through this project in Deltona. She stated that One Voice for Volusia is committed to keep the www.deltonaforyou.org website and add timely postings so Deltona residents and families can use it as an ongoing resource. She added that One Voice for Volusia is also willing to explore how to convene the group, possibly in collaboration with community efforts about twice annually. Discussion ensued. Mr. Shannon provided an update on the EYI; sharing that the youth involved with him in this project were excited and engaged, having attended a recent City Commission meeting.

Tim Sylvia presented on 2-1-1 and information & referral services through The United Way of Volusia/Flagler (Power Point). Questions and answers ensued.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, April 27th from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m. in the Commission Chambers at the City of Deltona (2345 Providence Blvd., Deltona). The key speaker will be Steve Moore, Director, City of Deltona Parks and Recreation. There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.
